What Does It Take to Get Your Goat?

By: Tom Moore

Hoover Rupert used to say, "The measure of someone is the size of the things it takes to get his or her goat." What do you think? Do you know what it means "to get his goat"?

It refers to the sensitivity of racehorses. According to Dr. Rupert, racehorses are infamously high-strung. Horse trainers learned many years ago that highly sensitive animals like a stall mate, and a goat is one of the most suitable companions for a racehorse. In fact, once a racehorse bonded with a goat, that horse would go crazy if the goat were taken away.

On the theory that all is fair in love and horse racing, gamblers used to try to shorten the odds by stealing a thoroughbred's stall mate. The hope was to reduce the racehorse's chance of winning. From this practice, "to get one's goat" came to stand for upsetting a person so that there was a complete loss of temper.

So, the measure of a person is the size of the thing it takes to get one's goat. What does it take to upset you? What does it take to make you lose your temper? How emotionally high-strung are you when you find yourself in a situation with your goat being out of the stall? Perhaps, we should give close attention to the words of Paul, "Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath: (Eph. 4:26). The Psalmist said, "Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: fret not thyself in any wise to do evil: (Psa. 37:8). Has someone taken your goat?

Ten Steps

Everyone Can Do To Reach Lost Friends

- I) Prayerfully identify one to three people you know who are not Christians.
- II) Pray for their salvation every day.
- III) Be a blessing to your friends.
- IV) Invite each to a meal (no agenda), just to get better acquainted.
- V) At an opportune time, ask each one for prayer request.
- VI) Invite each one to outreach events, Bible class, or church.
- VII) Be there for them when they need help.
- VIII) Continue praying, and seek opportunities to expose them to the gospel.
- IX) Tell them why you became a Christian.
- X) When they come to Christ, help them grow and become more involved.
