THE MAN IN THE GLASS -Author Unknown

*When you get what you want in your struggle for self and the world makes you king for a day,
just go to the mirror and look at yourself
and see what the man has to say.*

*For it isn't your father or your mother or wife whose judgment upon you must pass.
The fellow whose verdict counts most in your life is the one staring back from the glass.*

*You may be like Jack Horner and chisel a plum and think you're a wonderful guy.
But the man in the glass says you're only a bum
if you can't look him straight in the eye.*

*He's the fellow to please-never mind all the rest,
for he's with you clear to the end.
And you've passed your most dangerous, difficult test
if the man in the glass is your friend.*

*You may fool the whole world down the pathway of years and get pats on the back as you pass.
But your final reward will be heartache and tears
if you've cheated the man in the glass.*

James 1:22 "But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. 23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: 24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. 25 But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed."

Email: trogers@trentonlw.comFORGIVENESS:A MOST BEAUTIFUL WORD

There are many words that suggest beauty in the human ear. Mother, grace, love, salvation, and heaven are very meaningful terms. A word that should be added to this list is forgiveness. Like the colors of the rainbow, this beautiful word includes wisdom, power, mercy, and the goodness of God. Psalm 130:4 says, "But there is forgiveness with thee..." To forgive is to be like God.

The beauty of forgiveness can be seen by contrasting it with the saddest of words which has the saddest effect: Sin! Forgiveness cancels the awful effect and consequences of sin.

Sin is the transgression of the law of God (I John 3:4). Sin brings death, a separation from God and His Son. "Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin; and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death" (James 1:15). But through Christ, it is forgiveness that cancels what is deserved (death) for the sinner. "In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins..." (Eph. 1:7). Forgiveness takes away the darkness of sin. "To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins..." (Acts 26:18)

Forgiveness paints a sweet picture. When men reconcile themselves to God through obedience, the angels of heaven rejoice. When brethren who have wronged each other resolve their differences, there is pleasing communion. So, as Paul encourages, "And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you." (Eph. 4:32). A somber warning is given by our Lord- "For if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses" (Matt. 6:15).

Always cultivate the attitude of willingness to forgive those who repent. (Luke 17:3)
