THE PRICE OF A GRUDGE

Jesus said that a believer who refuses to forgive others will lose the assurance of divine mercy and the joy of fellowship with God. An unwillingness to pardon another is a grievous sin, and many Christians have paid a heavy price for failing to heed the Lord's admonition.

Some time ago a middle-aged woman sought to be reunited in marriage with her former husband. She told her preacher that they were both Christians when they established their home, and that they had been blessed with two sons. Then one day they quarreled, and harsh words were spoken. Each was too proud to ask the other's forgiveness, and the bitter feelings finally led to a divorce. Neither had found a new mate; and now 25 years later, with one son dead and the whereabouts of the other unknown, this woman learned that the only man she had ever loved was in the hospital. She went to see him, and with tears they forgave one another. At their request, the preacher gladly remarried them after performing the ceremony, he thought of the price they had paid because of their unwillingness to forgive. The prayer of both of them had been powerless, they could not experience the joy of their salvation, and their sons had suffered because of a broken home. Although the husband and the wife had been reunited, the wasted years could never be recalled.

Anybody who harbors an unforgiving spirit is cheating himself of fellowship with God, the beauty of a Christ-like character, and the best joys of life. The Christian cannot afford to pay the price of bearing a grudge!

"If you forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses" (Matthew 6:15).
