What Must I Do To Be Saved?

- We must hear the word of God. (Romans 10:17)
- We must believe the Word of God. (Hebrews 11:6; John 3:16; Mark 16:15-16)
- We must repent of our sins. (Luke 12:3; Acts 2:38)
- We must confess Christ before men. (Matthew 10:32-33; Romans 10:9-10)
- We must be immersed for the remission of our sins. (Acts 2:38; 22:16; 1 Peter 3:21)
- We must live faithfully until death. (Revelation 2:10; Romans 12:1-2)

ARE YOU TALKING TO YOURSELF?

Sometimes we chuckle at the idea of someone talking to himself. Although we find humor in others doing it, if hard-pressed, we all would have to plead guilty to talking to ourselves at one time or another.

It is interesting that God commanded Joshua to talk to himself. Notice; "This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth, but thou shalt mediate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein" (Joshua 1:8).

The Hebrew term that is translated "meditate" is a word which means "to speak with oneself, murmuring and in a loud voice, as is often by those who are musing" (Hebrew-Chaldee Lexicon to the Old Testament).

When we learn to talk to ourselves as we search the Scriptures, we will be doing more than just reading or studying, we will be developing a relationship with God's Word. The Bible is more than just a text to be studied, it is a companion (Proverbs 6:21, 22)!

When we read the account of Philip and the eunuch in Acts 8:26-31 we see that as Philip approached, he "heard the eunuch read the prophet Esaias" (8:30). The eunuch was reading aloud although he was alone.

Educators know that some people are visual learner, but most are auditory learner, and everyone does better when there is a good balance of both visual and auditory stimuli. When you read the Bible and speak out loud, you enhance your ability to learn the Scriptures. So maybe we all should talk to ourselves more as God's Word talks to us.

Try it, you might like it.

REASON TO REJOICE

Cailey Lanciloti was baptized into Christ this past Wednesday night after our services. We rejoice with her and her family in this decision. Let's all be an encouragement to Cailey and all our young people as they grow in the faith.

Romans 6:3 "Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? 4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life."
