What Must I Do To Be Saved?

- We must hear the word of God. (Romans 10:17)
- We must believe the Word of God. (Hebrews 11:6; John 3:16; Mark 16:15-16)
- We must repent of our sins. (Luke 13:3; Acts 2:38)
- We must confess Christ before men. (Matthew 10:32-33; Romans 10:9-10)
- We must be immersed for the remission of our sins. (Acts 2:38; 22:16; 1 Peter 3:21)
- We must live faithfully until death. (Revelation 2:10; Romans 12:1-2)

THE CAPTAIN'S PROMISE

The other day I was reading a story written by a lady about her voyage to 19th century America. When she was just a young child, her father came to America from Austria. The father left behind his wife, the young girl and a younger brother. The plan was this, the father would come to the U.S., find work, and then send money home for the wife and two kids to join him.

The father earned enough money for his family to join them. The money was sent back to Austria by way of a trusted friend - the captain of a ship. However, when the captain reached the family's home port, he discovered that the mother had died leaving behind the girl just 10 years old and her 8 year old brother.

The captain told the children that their father had sent for them. And that Captain promised he would take care of the kids and take them on his ship to reach their Dad in America.

The journey was long but the kind Captain kept his eyes on the kids and treated them like his own. Near the end of the voyage, the boy began to cry for his Dad ... but the older sister comforted her brother with these words.

"Captain promised us that we would soon be reunited with our father."

Two days later, the father was holding his two precious children in his arms.

The little girl said that she and her brother never forgot that wonderful promise made by such a good friend. And how he fulfilled that promise.

Our God has promised you many wonderful things IF you will obey the gospel message of salvation.

THE OTHER SIDE

A sick man turned to his doctor as he was preparing to leave the examining room and said, "Doctor, I am afraid to die. Tell me what lies on the other side."

Very quietly the doctor said, "I don't know."

"You don't know? You, a Christian man, do not know what is on the other side?"

The doctor was holding the handle of the door, on the other side from which came a sound of scratching and whining, and as he opened the door, a dog sprang into the room and leaped on him with an eager show of gladness.

Turning to the patient, the doctor said, "Did you notice my dog? He's never been in this room before. He didn't know what was inside. He knew nothing except that his master was here and when the door opened, he sprang in without fear. I know little of what is on the other side of death, but I do know one thing; I know my Master is there and that is enough."
