What Must I Do To Be Saved?

We must hear the word of God. (Romans 10:17)

We must believe the Word of God. (Hebrews 11:6; John 3:16; Mark 16:15-16)

We must repent of our sins. (Luke 13:3; Acts 2:38)

We must confess Christ before men. (Matthew 10:32,33; Romans 10:9-10)

We must be immersed for the remission of our sins. (Acts 2:38; 22:16; 1 Peter 3:21)

We must live faithfully until death. (Revelation 2:10; Romans 12:1-2)

But it looked like...

"Do not judge according to appearance, but judge with righteous judgment" (John 7:24).

From time to time we all need to be reminded of this important command. It is so easy to look at a person or a situation and to pronounce judgment based solely on our perception. This is a wrong and potentially dangerous practice. People, families, relationships, even souls can be affected by a casual disregard for this commandment.

Things are not always as they seem. On the outside, an individual may appear to be strong and confident, yet, on the inside, insecurity and doubt possess the heart. On the outside, there is the appearance of an ideal family yet, on the inside, there is almost continual fighting, hatred and misery that no family should know.

On the outside, one might seem very religious in an active and influential way yet, on the inside, there is a heart of unbelief filled with hypocrisies.

It also works the other way. On the outside, a person might appear to be perishing before your very eyes yet, on the inside, he is being renewed day by day (2 Corinthians 4:16). On the outside, an individual is being hard pressed, perplexed, persecuted and struck down yet, on the inside, he knows that He who raised up the Lord Jesus will also raise him up with Jesus (2 Corinthians 4:8-14).

On the outside, a person may appear to be poor, without blessings and with little hope yet, on the inside, he has kept the word and God has written the new name upon him (Revelation 3:10-12).

Whatever way you look at others, things may be very different than they appear. The Lord, in His infinite wisdom, has given us a command that will keep us from making wrong and harmful judgments. Do Not Judge According To Appearance – Either Way!

"Remember the Banana-when it left the bunch, it got skinned!" Such is a humorous way of reminding us that there is strength and safety in numbers. God in His infinite wisdom places every child of His in a family of believers. The strength and security from being surrounded with good people who love and encourage you is tremendous. "Thank you Lord for saving me and giving me brothers and sisters in my new family. They help me stand, when I am weak. They love me, when I am unlovable. They cry with me and laugh with me. I am not alone, and for such I am grateful."
