What Must I Do To Be Saved?

We must hear the word of God. (Romans 10:17)

We must believe the Word of God. (Hebrews 11:6; John 3:16; Mark 16:15-16)

We must repent of our sins. (Luke 13; Acts 2:38)

We must confess Christ before men. (Matthew 10:32-33; Romans 10:9-10)

We must be immersed for the remission of our sins. (Acts 2:38; 22:16; 1 Peter 3:21)

We must live faithfully until death. (Revelation 2:10; Romans 12:1-2)

Did You Know My Mother?

She was a homemaker, not just a housekeeper. She cooked, cleaned, and kept everything under control. She was always great under pressure - She could cook, clean, wash, and get you to ball practice and band camp, and fix food for the sick, and rock a baby to sleep, all at the same time - and never skip a beat. She ran the house like a drill sergeant - you followed orders, or punishment was swift and you knew she would not forget what she had promised. Many times on the way home from church services, Megan and I would ask, "Are you still going to whip Fritzie when we get home?" We already know the answer, but we didn't want her to forget. She kept four children quiet and in order through every service, even when Fritzie swallowed his money for the collection basket (and he pretended he had dropped it).

Well, Megan and I weren't always good. When we were not pleased with the way things were going, we would threaten to run away from home - We were always told not to cross the road. And you sure never said, "Well, everyone else is doing it." That surely meant you were not going to get to. Mom taught us to cook, clean, and do our work first, then you had time to do what you wanted to do. But, growing up, that was not always the way we put things in order of most importance.

Mom was not perfect, but she was a mother with many talents. She was a cookie baker, a banana-cake-baker, a band-trip-chaperone, a Girl Scout leader, a foster mother, a carpool driver, healer of many cuts, scrapes, broken bones, and hurt knees. She was very proud of her family and always made you feel special. She was a Bible class teacher, a flower gardener, and the first one there when you needed help of any kind. She could make a costume out of a few pieces of leftovers and you felt like you were the best one in the bunch. We were "the house in the neighborhood everyone played at" - the house where snacks and fun were always a part of life.

But, most of all, she was a Christian. That is what was important to her. She taught us to live by example and not word. Anyone who knew our mother knew how important the church was to her. She could not have made it through those last two years without her friends and loved ones.

So, if you helped in anyway, by the many cards that were sent, the food, the flowers, the phone calls, the visits, and the words of encouragement - Sometimes it was just a hug, or a look, or a special touch of the hand - The many prayers that were offered on her behalf and ours. We could not have made it without each and every one of you.

So, we thank you very much and hope we can do the same for you when you are in need . . . Because that's what Mom taught us to do . . . I hope you knew my mom.

-Michele Spiceland
