What Must I Do To Be Saved?

We must hear the word of God. (Romans 10:17)

We must believe the Word of God. (Hebrews 11:6; John 3:16; Mark 16:15-16)

We must repent of our sins. (Luke 11:3; Acts 2:38)

We must confess Christ before men. (Matthew 10:32-33; Romans 10:9-10)

We must be immersed for the remission of our sins. (Acts 2:38; 22:16; 1 Peter 3:21)

We must live faithfully until death. (Revelation 2:10; Romans 12:1-2)

Too Long, Too Far, Too Low

The day was April 21, 1918. It occurred during World War I. Baron Manfred von Richthofen led his flight of triplanes to search for British observation aircraft. An engagement ensued between a flight of Sopwith Camels led by Canadian Royal Air Force pilot Captain Arthur Roy Brown. Brown's friend Lt. Wilfred May was a rookie on his first offensive patrol. May had been ordered to keep out of combat, but he couldn't resist. He jammed his guns and, defenseless, he headed away from the battle. Richthofen spotted the lone plane and chose it for kill number 81. Brown observed the scene below him and dove to help his fellow airman, knowing that May was no match for Richthofen.

Read what happens next: "It was then, with Brown closing from behind, that Richthofen, usually a meticulous and disciplined fighter pilot, made a mistake and broke one of his own rules by following May too long, too far, and too low into enemy territory. Two miles behind the Allied lines, as Brown caught up with Richthofen and fired, the chase passed over the machinegun nests of Australian Field Artillery." The debate continues over who fired the fatal shot that passed through Richthofen's torso. Ultimately it doesn't matter- whether hit from the air or the ground, the Red Baron was mortally wounded.

Richthofen was good. Probably overconfident. But he "broke one of his own rules." Maybe in his mind he was just stretching the rule a bit. Or he was distracted by something that appeared too good to be true. Whatever the case, he compromised his own standards, which led to his demise. For the Red Baron, the temptation of number 81 was too much.

The temptation always exist for you and for me to focus on the wrong things. It is easy to be distracted by "the number$" or something else. Then we find ourselves flying too long, too far, and too low into enemy territory, into the bondage of sin, and ultimately to our own destruction. (Romans 6:23; Matthew 7:13-14).

The right thing to do is to set our eyes on Jesus (Hebrews 12:2) and follow Him, for He will lead us to eternal life in heaven. -David A. Sargent

Come Worship With Us

Welcome to Homecoming!

Welcome to the services of the Trezevant church of Christ. We are so delighted that you have come our way. Whether you have come home or visiting from our community we hope that each of you feel welcomed and you enjoy worshipping God in song, prayer and our study. If you are looking for a church home, have any questions, need assistance in anyway, or if you would like to study more about the Bible please let us know. We hope you will find this congregation to have love for each other and God. We want to be a pillar for the truth in this great community. I Timothy 3:15.

Everyone is encouraged to stay after our morning services for the meal that has been prepared. This will be a wonderful opportunity for us to get acquainted or reacquainted. There will be plenty of food so everyone is welcome. Around 12:15pm-12:30p.m. we will meet back in the auditorium for a short devotional to close our time of worship together for today.

Again on behalf of the Trezevant congregation I welcome you to our "HOMECOMING." We appreciate your interest in the truth. We invite you to attend our services every opportunity that you have.
