What Must I Do To Be Saved?

We must hear the word of God. (Romans 10:17)

We must believe the Word of God. (Hebrews 11:6; John 3:16; Mark 16:15-16)

We must repent of our sins. (Luke 13:3; Acts 2:38)

We must confess Christ before men. (Matthew 10:32-33; Romans 10:9-10)

We must be immersed for the remission of our sins. (Acts 2:38; 22:16; 1 Peter 3:21)

We must live faithfully until death. (Revelation 2:10; Romans 12:1-2)

THE SEVEN YEARS OF A MARRIED COLD

An article that first appeared in Saturday Evening Post years ago reveals a husband's reaction to his wife's colds during seven years of marriage.

1st year cold: The husband said, "Sugar dumpling! I'm really worried about my baby girl! You've got a bad snuffle and there's no telling about these things with all the strep going around. I'm putting you in the hospital this afternoon for a general check up and a good rest. I know the food is lousy there, so I'll be bringing you food from Tosini's. I've already got it all arranged with the floor superintendent."

2nd year cold: "Listen, darling! I don't like the sound of that cough! I've called Dr. Miller to rush over here. Now you go to bed like a good little girl just for Poppa."

3rd year cold: "Maybe you better lie down, Honey. Nothing like a little rest when you feel lousy. I'll bring you something. Do you have any canned soup?"

4th year cold: "Now look dear, be sensible! After you've fed the kids, washed the dishes and finished vacuuming, you'd better lie down."

5th year cold: "Why don't you take a couple of aspirin?"

6th year cold: "If you'd just gargle or something, instead of sitting around barking like a seal!"

7th year cold: "Would you stop sneezing! Are you trying to give me pneumonia!?"
 Things do change over the years, don't they? May we encourage those who are married to do something special for your spouse today? Write a sweet note or buy a card. Pick up some flowers or a small gift (yes, be prepared for a response like, "What did you do now, wreck the car?"). Let's all make a conscious effort not to take one another for granted.
"Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it...admonish the young women to love their husbands..." (Eph. 5:25; Titus 2:4)

PERSPECTIVE

Author Unknown

A woman fell into a pit and couldn't get herself out.

A subjective person came along and said: "I feel for you down there."

An objective person came along and said: "It's logical that someone would fall down there."

A Pharisee said: "Only bad people fall into a pit."

A drunk said: "What pit?"

A news reporter wanted the exclusive story on her pit.

A sanctimonious person said, "You deserve your pit."

An IRS man asked if she was paying taxes on her pit.

A self-pitying person said: "You haven't seen anything until you've seen my pit!"

A optimist said: "Things could be worse."

A pessimist said: "Things will get worse."

Jesus came along, took the woman by the hand and lifted her out of the pit.

Psalms 1

"Blessed [is] the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of scoffers. But his delight [is] in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth its fruit in its season; its leaf also shall not wither; and whatever he doeth shall prosper. The ungodly [are] not so: but [are] like the chaff which the wind driveth away. Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous. For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish."
