OUR AIM IS . . .

- ⇒ To speak where the Bible speaks, and to be silent where the Bible is silent!
- ⇒ To call Bible things by Bible names and to do Bible things in Bible ways!
- ⇒ To have unity in matters of faith, liberty in matters of opinion, and love in all things!
- ⇒ To "serve God acceptably with reverence and with Godly fear"! (Heb. 12:28)
- ⇒ To welcome all who submit themselves to God and honestly seek to do His will!

What Must I Do To Be Saved?

We must hear the word of God. (Romans 10:17)

We must believe the Word of God. (Hebrews 11:6; John 1:16; Mark 16:15-16)

We must repent of our sins. (Luke 13:3; Acts 2:38)

We must confess Christ before men. (Matthew 10:32-33; Romans 10:9-10)

We must be immersed for the remission of our sins. (Acts 2:38, 22:16; 1 Peter 3:21)

We must live faithfully until death. (Revelation 2:10; Romans 12:1-2)

IF WE ONLY KNEW

If we only knew how much we hurt those we love when we are insensitive and uncaring toward them, we would probably weigh our words and decide not to say some of them.

If we only knew how much influence we actually have on people, especially children, we would probably change some of our habits.

If we only knew how menial some of the tasks are that take up so much of our time, we would probably spend some of that time on more worthwhile projects (and people).

If we only knew how little some of our failures actually are in the overall picture of life, we would be more optimistic about self-improvement.

If we only knew how much a smile and a kind word can change someone's day, we would probably be a little less self-centered and a little more thoughtful.

If we only knew how much our children are going to be like us, we would probably spend a little less time on worldly matters and a little more time in work for the Lord.

If we only knew how much we are going to miss someone we love after they are gone, we would probably tell them how we really feel about them a little more often.

If we only knew how much each day means to an older person, we would probably make a point to stop and talk with them a little more.

If we only knew how much we could learn by just listening and observing, we would probably not have so much to say.

If we only knew how beautiful Heaven really is, we would probably be trying a little harder to get there.

If we only knew how terrible and awful it will be to go to Hell, we would probably try harder to avoid it.

If we only knew. . .

HOW TO HAVE A WINNING DAY

Listen more than you talk.
Give more than you get.
Smile more than you frown.
Think "we" more than "me."
Agree more than you criticize.
Compliment more than you criticize.
Laugh more than you cry.
Clean up more than you mess up.
Be positive more than you're negative.
Be fascinated more than you're frustrated.
"Walk the walk" more than you "talk the talk."
Be more accepting than rejecting.
See the cup "half full" more than seeing it "half empty."
Help more than you hinder.
Believe in yourself more than you doubt yourself.
Work more than you whine.
Do more than you don't.
Act more than you react.
Save more than you squander.

THE PASSING YEARS

*Life passes by so fast, Lord- I know I'm sure to miss
A vital part unless You keep reminding me of this.
There's so much that I want to do, a lot I've left undone,
So many plans discarded-and a few I've not begun.*

*Life passes by so fast, Lord- How often I've been told,
It always does around the time we're growing old,
"For everything there's a season" is wise as well as just,
But I had rather wear me out- Than fall apart with rust.*

*Life passes by so fast, Lord, the days, months, the years,
Lord keep a smile upon my lips, and blot away my tears
Teach me to lean upon Your arm- when pain and sickness strike,
To tell the facts from fancies, that sometimes look alike.*

*Life passes by so fast, Lord, and yet how kind You are
In granting me the precious years that I have had so far.
So let the days grow shorter, the darkest shadows part,
But put the wrinkles on my face...And please, Lord, never on my heart!*
