What Must I Do To Be Saved?

We must hear the word of God. (Romans 10:17)

We must believe the Word of God. (Hebrews 11:6; John 3:16; Mark 16:15-16)

We must repent of our sins. (Luke 13:3; Acts 2:38)

We must confess Christ before men. (Matthew 10:32-33; Romans 10:9-10)

We must be immersed for the remission of our sins. (Acts 2:41; 22:16; 1 Peter 3:21)

We must live faithfully until death. (Revelation 2:10; Romans 12:1-2)

But it looked like...

"Do not judge according to appearance, but judge with righteous judgment" (John 7:24).

From time to time we all need to be reminded of this important command. It is so easy to look at a person or a situation and to pronounce judgment based solely on our perception. This is a wrong and potentially dangerous practice. People, families, relationships, even souls can be affected by a casual disregard for this commandment.

Things are not always as they seem. On the outside, an individual may appear to be strong and confident, yet, on the inside, insecurity and doubt posses the heart. On the outside, there is the appearance of an ideal family yet, on the inside, there is almost continual fighting, hatred and misery that no family should know.

On the outside, one might seem very religious in an active and influential way yet, on the inside, there is a heart of unbelief filled with hypocrisies.

It also works the other way. On the outside, a person might appear to be perishing before your very eyes yet, on the inside, he is being renewed day by day (2 Corinthians 4:16). On the outside, an individual is being hard pressed, perplexed, persecuted and struck down yet, on the inside, he knows that He who raised up the Lord Jesus will also raise him up with Jesus (2 Corinthians 4:8-14).

On the outside, a person may appear to be poor, without blessings and with little hope yet, on the inside, he has kept the word and

God has written the new name upon him (Revelation 3:10-12).

Whatever way you look at others, things may be very different than they appear. The Lord, in His infinite wisdom, has given us a command that will keep us from making wrong and harmful judgments. Do Not Judge According To Appearance – Either Way!

Mickey L. Bell

"Remember the Banana- when it left the bunch, it got skinned!" Such is a humorous way of reminding us that there is strength and safety in numbers. God in His infinite wisdom places every child of His in a family of believers. The strength and security from being surrounded with good people who love and encourage you is tremendous. "Thank you Lord for saving me and giving me brothers and sisters in my new family. They help me stand, when I am weak. They love me, when I am unlovable. They cry with me and laugh with me. I am not alone, and for such I am grateful."

"Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life."

Romans 6:3-4

WELCOME

to Family & Friend Day!

Welcome to the services of the Trezevant church of Christ. We are so delighted that you have come our way. We hope that each of you feel welcomed and you enjoy worshipping God in song, prayer and our study. If you are looking for a church home, have any questions, need assistance in anyway, or if you would like to study more about the Bible please let us know. We hope you will find this congregation to have love for each other and God. We want to be a pillar for the truth in this great community. 1 Timothy 3:15.

Everyone is encouraged to stay after our morning services for a wonderful meal that has been prepared. This will be an opportunity for us to get to know each other better. There will be plenty of food so everyone is welcome. Around 12:15pm-12:30p.m. we will meet back in the auditorium for a short devotional to close our time of worship together for today.

Again on behalf of the Trezevant congregation I welcome you to our “FAMILY and FRIENDS DAY.”

Interesting Facts about the Bible!

The first translation of the Bible made in America was printed in 1808. It was the work of Charles Thomson.
