

A Little Humility Please

Luke 18: 10-14, "Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men [are], extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all I possess. And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as [his] eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner. I tell you, this man went down to his house justified [rather] than the other; for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted."

Prayer should be an exercise in humility. We should not pray to exalt ourselves. Prayer is not a time to show off our vocabularies and our skill of oratory. Prayer is not a time to remind others of our spiritual attributes and accomplishments.

There are things to remember when we pray:

--- It is by God's grace and mercy that he listens to our prayers. 1 Peter 3:12, "for the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers; but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil." 1 Peter 5:7, "Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you."

--- We cannot come to God based on our own goodness, wisdom, or strength. Isaiah 64:6, "But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousness are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away."

--- It is due to the work and righteousness of our high Priest that we can come boldly before the throne of God. Hebrews 4:14-16, "Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast (our) profession. "For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as (we are, yet) without sin. "Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need."
