

20TH ANNIVERSARY

Although it still seems new to some of us, this week we will have been blessed to enjoy our current building for 20 years. During this time we have seen a number of our precious members leave this earthly home and rejoiced in those who made the decision to be saved. We were joyful and motivated with the thought of new opportunities we could have with this new facility, and though there is still much to do, we pray that the Lord has seen us as good stewards of this blessing in His work.

Below is a reprint of the announcement:

TREZEVANT CHURCH OF CHRIST OPEN HOUSE AND DEDICATION DECEMBER 15, 1996

Shortly after the Civil War, Captain William Marshall, a confederate Veteran donated the land "for these religious buildings, all built in a row, originally known as the grove." A congregation of New Testament Christians began in Trezevant in 1870-72, when W. E. Hall held a meeting in the in the School House. The congregation's original membership included: Mr. & Mrs. Pogue Williamson, Ms. Etta, Mr. & Mrs. Jim Brown, Mrs. Rebecca Brown, and young Doctor Watson.

In about 1890-96, a brick building was erected to serve the church. A baptistery and three classrooms were added in 1937. By supplying members and financial aid, the congregation in Atwood started it's own congregation. In 1983 additional classrooms were built, and the auditorium was refurbished.

Construction on this new building began on April 20, 1996. Wednesday night Bible Study was conducted in the new building on November 20, 1996. The following Sunday, November 24th, the congregation met for the Lord's day worship in the new building. The new building contains 8800 square feet. The auditorium will comfortably seat 275. There are six classrooms for cradle roll, pre-school, primary, Junior and Senior High, and Young Adults and four restrooms. A large multipurpose room and kitchen complement the building as well as an office that serves as the preacher's study.

We are delighted to welcome you here today. We believe that these new Facilities will enable us to more adequately fulfill the Ministry of Christ in this community. We are grateful that you have come to share the joy of this occasion.
