What's in Your Wallet?

This question has been posed by a major financial institution in our country as its primary marketing slogan since the year 2000. In asking it, a famous celebrity strives to make the point that we would all be better off with this particular credit card. Our focus today is not on credit cards, but on what our "wallets" mean to us.

Our wallets contain a lot of information about our identities. Many of us have more in our wallets than just money and a credit card or two (or ten) – our driver licenses, social security cards, health insurance cards, and more – a good portion of our identities. Without our wallets, most of us would be hard-pressed to identify ourselves to authorities, and we would have difficulty with such activities as banking and making routine purchases.

But let's make a spiritual application with this slogan. While our earthly identities will be of no significance when we stand before the judgment seat of Christ, we need to make absolutely sure we possess that which will allow us entrance into heaven. Each of us needs to answer honestly some questions:

Have I been cleansed from my sin by the blood of Jesus (Rev. 1:5)? Am I seeking first the kingdom of God and His righteousness (Matt. 6:33)? Is my light shining before men so that the Father is glorified by my good works (Matt. 5:16)? Am I living each day as if it were the last (Rev. 2:10)?

There is one identifier which will determine our eternal destination, and that is to have our names found in the Lamb's book of life on the Day of Judgment (Rev. 20:12). Without it, we have no hope; there will be nothing to identify us as belonging to God. We can have no expectation of being invited into eternal heaven.

Thus begs the question, "What's in your wallet?"

Restored...

Jean Ford came last Sunday confessing negligence in her attendance and service, and asking forgiveness of God and her Christian family. We rejoice with Jean in her homecoming, and we welcome her back to the fold. Please continue to keep her in prayer.

"Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than ninety nine righteous persons who need no repentance". Lk 15:7

Remember in Prayer...

- Miss Mary moved to Dogwood Pointe in Milan Monday, room D3. The address is 2080 Craig Dr., Milan 38358.
- Wanda was feeling some better midweek, but was staying in due to the weather.
- Please put Steve's cousin Dan Foster back on your prayer list. His cancer has spread.

News and Notes...

- We welcome our visitors! Please stay around a while and let us get acquainted with you.
- Today is a great day! We are so pleased to have Dorian Flynn back with us; he will be speaking at both the morning and afternoon services today...
- And this is both Meet-Eat-Meet day and Sweetheart Day, which means it's ladies' day off and the men have provided the meal. Please make plans to participate and enjoy the fellowship!
- Please see Nick to donate to the pantry fund.
- Those who take public part in the worship service are reminded to regularly check the schedule and notify one of the deacons if you are unable to fulfil your assignment.
