For What Are You Thankful?

The Thanksgiving holiday season is upon us, and most of us will celebrate with our own traditions. In our home it's all about family, food, and fun – turkey and dressing and all the trimmings, more desserts than anyone should ever eat, watching our favorite teams play football, gathering around the table for family time and games, and remembering past holidays and missing those who have gone on before us. Above all, there will be heartfelt expressions of thanksgiving to God for the multitude of blessings He has provided.

For what should we be thankful? For one thing, we should be thankful for being able to live in a country which has been so blessed by God. Even with all our imperfections and shortcomings, this is still a land of opportunity for most. Compared to other places in the world where poverty is the rule and not the exception, most of us have plenty. We enjoy freedoms to make choices, not the least of which is the freedom to worship without being compelled to a national religion.

Above all, we should be thankful to our God in heaven for the spiritual blessings that are ours in Christ Jesus (Eph. 1:3):

- He has provided the means for us to be saved from our sins. Our heavenly Father would have all men to be saved (1 Tim. 2:3-4) and is not willing that any should perish but all should have eternal life (2 Pet. 3:9).
- He provided the needed sacrifice for our sins because He loves us (John 3:16, Rom. 5:8). Jesus, who paid our sin debt, became the propitiation for our sins, a gift offered to all who obey Him (1 John 4:10; Heb. 5:8-9).
- He has given us the instructions necessary for our salvation and to prepare us for living godly lives (2 Tim. 3:15-17), as well as the promises of the grace to endure the difficulties of life and the assurance of heaven for all who submit to Him (2 Cor. 12:9; 1 John 5:13).

Thanksgiving is not just a special day for us to observe, but is a way of life when we serve the one, true, living God of the Bible. Let us thank Him every day in every way, even when sometimes our way seems difficult.

~Freeman

Remember in Prayer...

- Steve came home from the hospital Monday; he continues to improve.
- Dale Aden had tests Wednesday; the initial report was good.
- Miss Mary has been suffering with a UTI; she is improving after a change in antibiotics.
- Ponna's PET scan revealed a nodule in a lung and on her thyroid. They do not appear to be too concerning, but were biopsied Thursday. Results are expected Monday, Dec. 2.
- Barbara's shoulder surgery is Monday, Dec. 9, in Paris... Robby's surgery on his lung is Dec. 31 at Vanderbilt...
- Sharon's mother Ruth Bennett has been suffering with back pain... The spots in Dustin Bryant's lung have been determined to be calcium nodules... Karen Clark (David Bryant's cousin) is scheduled for a lung evaluation at Vanderbilt on Dec. 13.

News and Notes...

- We welcome our visitors! Please complete a visitor card and place in the collection tray. We ask that you stay around a while and let us get acquainted with you.
- We will be Singing this Wednesday night in lieu of our regular Bible classes. Please plan to be here and bring your Thanksgiving company with you!
- Devo this Wednesday night: Steve Foster
- Please remember the Gift Baskets for two new families in town. A temporary basket has been placed on the table at the back of the auditorium for donations; these are to be delivered next week.

MEMORY VERSE: Psalm 106:1:

Praise ye the LORD. O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.
