The Source of Truth

What do you think when you hear a lead-in such as, "According to my sources..."? Such statements are regular occurrences in the world of college sports recruiting. Because coaches are prohibited from discussing particular players until they are actually bound to that team, recruiting information provided to the fan base is regularly preceded by the reference to source. When the source is not named, the accuracy and truthfulness of the information is certainly subject to question.

There is one thing we can be sure of regarding the truth: The source of the truth is God. Jesus acknowledged this in the upper room as He prayed that God would Sanctify them by thy truth: thy word is truth (John 17:17). And in His wisdom, this Source of Truth has chosen to utilize others to reveal His word:

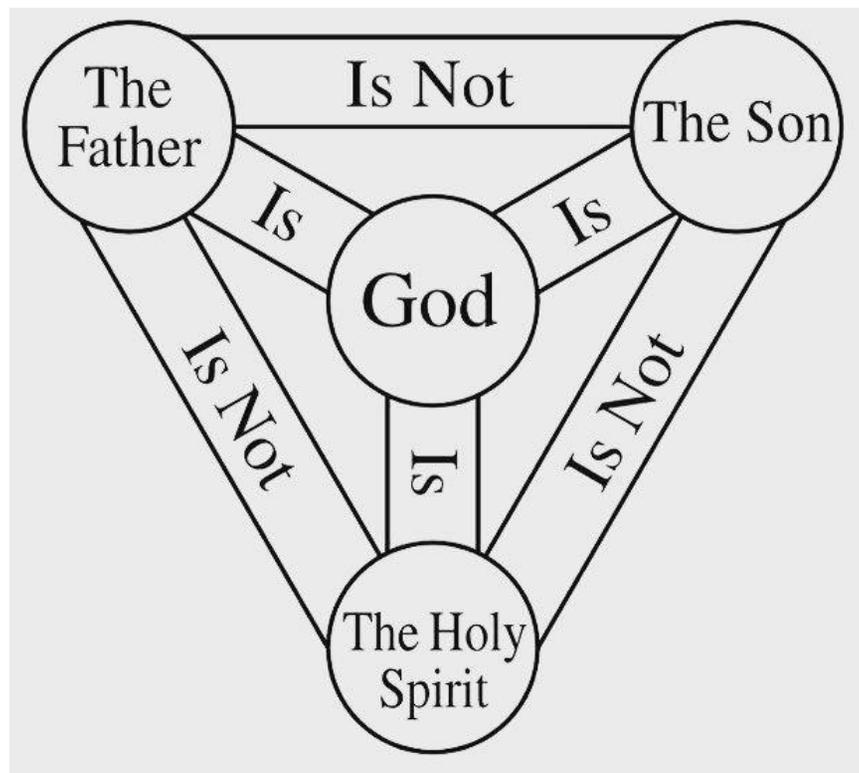

- Moses and the prophets spoke that which God gave them to speak (Ex. 4:12; Jer. 1:9).
- Jesus, while on earth, affirmed, "For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak." (John 12:49)

- Jesus declared concerning the Holy Spirit, “Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but that which he shall hear, that shall he speak.” (John 16:13)
- The apostles said and wrote that which came from God: All scripture is given by inspiration of God... (2 Tim. 3:16; Matt. 10:19).

While earthly matters may be confusing as to the truthfulness of sources, we can be assured that what we read and hear from God’s word is truth and that it all came from Him.

MEMORY PASSAGE - Psalm 23: <sup>1</sup>The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. <sup>2</sup>He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. <sup>3</sup>He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name’s sake. <sup>4</sup>Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. <sup>5</sup>Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou annointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.
