Many Are Never Satisfied

Suppose you had the same thing to eat for breakfast every day for a solid year. Would you become tired of eating it? Or how about eating the same thing for lunch, to the point that everyone who knows you could tell others what was in your lunch box? Would you be bored? Most people don't want to eat the same thing two or three days in a row, much less for months or years. When it comes to their diets, people like to have some change.

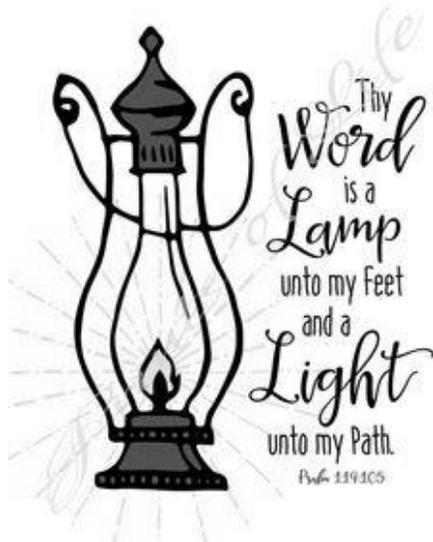

The Israelites were no different. After leaving Egyptian bondage, they murmured and complained about their lives, their food in particular. And the mixt multitude that was among them fell a lusting; and the children of Israel also wept again, and said, Who shall give us flesh to eat? We remember the fish...the cucumbers, and the melons, and the onions, and the garlick: But now our soul is dried away: there is nothing at all, beside this manna... (Num. 11:4ff). God had provided them with manna - food from heaven - to satisfy their hunger and provide the nourishment they needed until they reached that land flowing with milk and honey. But they were never satisfied.

Similarly, as the Israelites were not satisfied with the literal food from heaven, mankind is not satisfied with the spiritual food from heaven. That spiritual food is the word which proceeds from the mouth of God (Matt. 4:4), is that which makes us wise unto salvation (2 Tim 3:15), is the lamp unto our feet and a light unto our path (Ps. 119:105), and is all we need to be profitable children of God (2 Tim. 3:16-17). Paul warned that the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine... (2 Tim. 4:2ff). This illustrates man's lack of satisfaction with what God has declared.

Just as most are not satisfied to eat the same things every day, neither are they are satisfied with the spiritual bread from heaven. Instead they desire to hear what pleases them. They are more interested in a perverted gospel (Gal. 1:6ff) which lures men to that broad and wide path leading to destruction. (Matt. 7:13-14). May we instead be satisfied with what God supplies so that we may partake of the spiritual blessings found only in His son Jesus Christ.
