How to Vote as a Christian

Yes, I just went there. There is a right way and a wrong way to do anything, including voting for President. There is the way a Christian is to do it, and there is the other way. So here we go...

1. Do NOT abstain from voting altogether. I know elections are tough for Christians because we can't find a candidate who lines up with us on every subject. But if you think about it, Jesus wouldn't line up with us perfectly because we are all so weak and in need of continual guidance ourselves. And since we are commanded to submit to the authority of the government (Romans 13:1), we should do our part in selecting who will govern. If you do not vote at all you really have no right to disagree with those who rule over you.

2. Pick the candidate that best represents the God of the Bible. There has never been a person who ran for any office that could stand in God's place as far as righteousness is concerned. But there has always been one candidate that stood for morality to some degree more than the others. Issues about the economy or other peripheral matters are not as important as issues about morality. We are not taking material possessions (cont'd next page) with us. But we will stand before God on the Day of Judgment and have to answer for what we believed and practiced morally.

3. Do not compartmentalize your faith. You can't be a Christian part-time. It is inconsistent to decide that we can put our faith aside in order to support a certain candidate or political party. Some people would vote for the devil himself if he happened to be running under the political ticket to which they have traditionally ascribed. How can we say we love God and His word if we are willing to give up what we believe when we go behind a curtain?

4. Pray. Pray earnestly and fervently. Pray for the country. Pray for every elected official. Pray that God will lead them and that they will lean on Him for answers. Pray that we will be a nation that follows the Lord and respects Him as the supreme authority in everything. "Be thou not unbelieving but believing." The ship has not sunk. The war is not over. There are still opportunities to serve the Lord. In every generation, there have been those who have been faithful to the Lord. No matter what happens with the election it will still be our job to love God and be His people. We can do this and God will help us if we are willing to repent and seek His face.

The God of heaven loves us. May we all in love and unity do our very best to serve Him and bless others together.

"If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Remember in Prayer . . .

- Kay remains in room 448 of the Milan hospital. She is about the same.
- Mickey has cellulitis in his legs and is being treated with antibiotics. He is to be off work all this week.
- Charles Foster is scheduled for a colonoscopy Wednesday.
- Monte is about the same - some good days, some not so good.
- Greg McClain is home and improving following his recent auto accident.
- Please continue to remember our shut-ins.

News and Notes . . .

- Our congregation is participating in the PTP 365 video program. Please see Freeman if you need instruction about accessing it.
- As a part of PTP 365, Bible classes for 10-12 year-olds and for teenagers will be available for viewing after 7AM each Sunday. Material for these studies is available on the table at the back of the auditorium.
- We are again assembling on Sundays at 9AM and 5PM. All of our services are live-streamed, including the Wednesday Bible class at 6:30PM, which is not yet open to the public.
- Your continued participation in social distancing and wearing a mask is appreciated as we assemble. Please pick up your communion packets from the foyer on your way in, and discard them in the basket by the door as you leave.
- Our new pictorial DIRECTORIES are available on the table next to the front doors for anyone who has not yet received one. One directory per family, please.
