I Want to be Like...

Americans have always had sports heroes. In the 1990's, one of the most popular of these was Michael Jordan, and Gatorade cleverly embellished his reputation with a series of commercials playing on the very catchy idea, "I want to be like Mike!"

As we think about who we might "want to be like," let's consider some Bible characters instead of sports figures.

I want to be like:

- Abraham, who believed God, and it was counted unto him as righteousness (Rom. 4:3);
- Enoch, who walked with God (Gen. 5:22);
- Noah, who became heir of righteousness which is by faith (Heb. 11:7);
- Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face (Deut. 34:10);
- Samuel, who was in favor with the Lord, and also with men (1 Sam. 2:26);
- David, a man after mine (God's) own heart (Acts 13:22);
- Jeremiah, in whom God's words were a burning fire in his bones (Jer. 20:9);
- Peter, who said we ought to obey God rather than man (Acts 5:29);

- John, the one to whom Jesus entrusted the care of His own mother (John 19:26-27);
- Paul, who fought the good fight...finished the course...kept the faith (2 Tim. 4:7).

Yet, as good as these men were, they were human and had their own flawed characters, making sinful mistakes just as we do. And while they all possessed attributes that would be good for us to emulate, it is far better that we desire to be like the One who gave His life for us.

MEMORY VERSES - 1 Peter 1:22-23:

22 Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently; 23 being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth forever.
