It's all about One Another

When confronted by God after having slain his brother Abel, Cain responded with a question, "Am I my brother's keeper?" This is an interesting query, not just for that circumstance, but even for us now in the 21st Century. Are we to be our brother's keeper as Christians? Absolutely! Consider the following "one another" passages regarding our brothers and sisters in Christ:

- Love one another: A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another... (John 13:34); This is my commandment, that ye love one another... (John 15:12); Owe no man any thing, but to love one another... (Rom. 13:8).
- Prefer one another: Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honor preferring one another... (Rom. 12:10). The idea here is to honor and esteem the other above ourselves.
- Admonish (instruct) one another: ...ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another (Rom. 15:14); ...teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs... (Col. 3:16).
- Serve one another: ...by love serve one another (Gal. 5:13).

- Forbear one another: With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love (Eph. 4:2); Forbearing one another... (Col. 3:13). The meaning here is to be able to put up with one another, especially in difficult circumstances, in the spirit of forgiveness.
- Forgive one another: And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another... (Eph. 4:32); ...and forgiving one another... (Col. 3:13).
- Comfort one another: Wherefore comfort one another with these words (1 Thes. 4:18).
- Edify one another: Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another... (1 Thes. 5:11). To edify means to build up. Our words and actions should be such that they will help others to be better able to endure difficulties.
- Exhort (encourage) one another: But exhort one another daily... (Heb. 3:13); Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another... (Heb. 10:25).

The scriptures continually instruct us to watch out not just for ourselves, but also for others. We are our brothers' keepers. We are to do all we can to make sure that our brothers and sisters in Christ are properly encouraged to be able to endure the discouragements and to remain faithful to the Lord. Let us strive to be mindful of each other in all we do.
