Moms

Mother's Day is the day set aside each year for us to show our love and appreciation to our mothers. Our moms are largely responsible for who we become as adults. They carry us around for about nine months until we are ready to emerge into the world, then they carry us around for about eighteen years until we are ready to go out into the real world. During this time they make sure we have proper nourishment, that our bodies, our teeth, our rooms, and our clothes are clean, that we know how to behave in public, and that we treat others with proper respect. They provide us with nurture and discipline and good advice, whether we are smart enough to pay attention or not. They love us even when we are not lovable, and they keep their hurt feelings to themselves. They are happy when we are happy and sad when we are sad. They reassure us that everything will be okay when we think our problems are beyond repair. They are there for our school functions and our ball practices and games. They do all of this and more while holding down a job and making sure the house is clean and keeping plenty of food on the table.

The Bible speaks of several very special moms. Jochebed, the mother of Moses, protected her son from the Pharaoh's Israelite infanticide by putting him in the river in a basket, where he was retrieved providentially by Pharaoh's own daughter. Jochebed was then given the opportunity to nurse Moses and teach him of his true heritage (Ex. 2). Hannah, who was barren until God answered her prayers with the birth of a son, Samuel, kept her promise and gave him back to the Lord when he was weaned (1 Sam. 1). Elisabeth, the mother of John the Baptist, had been barren, but was blessed of God with a son who would serve the Lord (Luke 1). And Mary, mother of Jesus, was a virgin and a godly woman who conceived by the Holy Ghost to bring forth the son of God (Matt. 1:18-25). We esteem these mothers because of their godliness as women and mothers.

If you are so fortunate as to still have a mother on this earth, be sure to take every opportunity to show her that you love her – not just today, but every day.

~Freeman

MEMORY VERSES - James 3:8-9:

<sup>8</sup>But no one can tame the tongue; it is a restless evil and full of deadly poison. <sup>9</sup>With it we bless our Lord and Father; and with it we curse men, who have been made in the likeness of God...
