On Which List Are You?

Are you a list person? We have a granddaughter who is a list junkie. When she was in high school, she kept a daily log of the clothes she wore so she would not wear the same thing again for at least three weeks! I couldn't care less if I wear the same thing two days in a row, but I do regularly have a list of some sort – a grocery list, a to-do list, etc. I have them because I need to be organized when performing a task, and because my memory is sometimes not as good as it used to be.

The Holy Spirit must be a list-keeper too, for in several of the New Testament books we can find His lists:

- A list of unrighteous acts that will keep many from heaven (1 Cor. 6:9ff);
- A list of acts described by God in Romans 1:28ff as reprobate (KJV), debased (NKJ), and depraved (NASB);
- A list of practices that result in eternal condemnation in the lake of fire (Rev. 21:8).

God's word is clear: Those guilty of any of the sins in these lists will have chosen that broad road to destruction.

May we do everything in our power to avoid the such-were-some-of-you list of 1 Corinthians 6:9-11 (unrighteous, fornicators, idolaters, adulterers, homosexuals, sodomites, thieves, covetous, drunkards, revilers, extortioners), and strive to possess the attributes of the fruits of the Spirit list (love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control [Gal. 5: 22-23]), so our names may be found in the Book of Life list (Rev. 21:27).

Each of us chooses his own path, his own list. Which one have you chosen? The choice is yours; choose wisely.

~Freeman

Choose wisely.
