The Follower

June 22, 2025

We often read Jesus' words—"Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you"—and think only of what we're asking for.

But what if Jesus is inviting us not just to receive something, but to become something?

Asking opens our hearts in humility. Seeking shapes our direction. Knocking teaches us persistence. Over time, these actions don't just change our circumstances—they change us.

Think about it: a child who constantly asks, seeks, and knocks isn't just hoping for gifts—they're learning trust, patience, and boldness. God's goal isn't just to fill our hands. He wants to shape our hearts into disciples who depend on Him.

So this week, don't just ask for answers—ask to grow. Don't just seek blessings—seek God's presence. Don't just knock for opportunity—knock to know Him more deeply.

God is a good Father. He hears. He opens. He gives. Let's not just be people who ask once, but people who live in the asking, seeking, and knocking.
